The Way

As we begin 2026, I received an unexpected and wonderful gift. Many of you know that I truly love hiking, and one of my longtime bucket-list dreams has been to walk the John Muir Trail—often called a dream trail for hikers. But to hike this trail, you must have a permit, and getting one is extremely difficult. Especially in July, permits for the route from Yosemite Valley to Mount Whitney are highly competitive, with only a 1–3% chance of being selected. So earlier this year, I applied to the lottery almost as a practice run—without much expectation—thinking, “Maybe someday.” But about a week later, I received an email that began with one word: “Congratulations.” I had been selected for a permit. I honestly couldn’t believe it, and I felt deep gratitude right away.

This July, I’ll be walking 211 miles through rugged wilderness, and to be honest, it does make me a little nervous. But even more than that, I feel excited when I imagine the beauty of creation I’ll encounter along the way—and the glory of God shining through it all. I’m hoping that this pilgrimage in nature will renew both my body and spirit, and that God will shape something new in me through the journey.

This year, our church’s goal is to become a church that prays and shares the gospel. In Korean, the word for evangelism is written with two meanings: “to pass on” and “the way.” It literally means “to share the Way.” Jesus says, “I am the way, and the truth, and the life” (John 14:6). If we want to share the Way with others, we must first know the Way ourselves—and walk it as disciples.

Sometimes we lose our way. Sometimes we wander. Sometimes we take a long detour before returning to the Way again. But through that process, we slowly draw closer to Christ, and we keep walking—one step at a time—toward the true home of our souls along the path of love. That is the pilgrimage of life, and it is our spiritual journey.

Lent is a season when we look again to the Way Jesus walked, and intentionally turn our hearts and minds back toward Christ. This year, we will begin our Lenten journey with the theme “The Way.” On Wednesday, February 18 at 7:00 p.m., we will gather at the church for our Ash Wednesday service. I invite you to come and reflect again on the Way of life Jesus has shown us—and to walk this journey together as one church family.

Peace,

Pastor Yohan Go

PILL BOTTLE MISSION

Our church has been sending empty pill bottles to a larger mission outreach for quite some time now. The postage has been paid in a variety of ways. If you are able to help with the postage, it costs approximately $35 per month to send these boxes. Please speak to Joan White regarding this mission project.

Calling all Asbury golf enthusiasts: April 11, Saturday is a great day for a fundraiser and a golf outing...Indoors! That snow is gonna last which means less time to brush up on our skills before the good weather!

Topgolf's event last year brought in a lot of fun, food and $1000+!

We're looking for a few good men (and women) to be ambassadors for this year's event. We're stepping up our game by including a certified golf coach to help participants looking for custom help. Plus, there's a buffet and tournament prizes.

Ambassadors would assist with securing donations for a silent auction at the tournament/buffet event. We'll need all to get the word out about the event. Minimal help the day of (so you can play too!) .

More details to follow to those who email or call me with interest.

Whether you are a seasoned singer or new to the choir experience, your voice has a place here. Come to a practice session or contact me directly to learn more about this wonderful opportunity. Together, we will inspire hearts and glorify God through the gift of music.

Your Music Director: Leading with Faith, Passion, and Purpose

As your Music Director, I am honored to lead our choir in creating music that reflects God's love and grace. My role is not just to guide you musically but also to support you spiritually and personally. If you have questions, concerns, or ideas, please don't hesitate to reach out to me. Together, we are building a music ministry that honors God and inspires our congregation.

Prayers and Support: United in Faith and Purpose

As we continue to grow as a choir and a community, I ask for your prayers. Please pray that our choir will glorify God, support our pastor's ministry, and bring grace to our congregation. If you have any prayer requests or need support, please feel free to share them with me or a fellow choir member. We are more than a choir; we are a family, united by our faith and purpose, supporting one another in love and grace.
