January 2026

A Church That Prays and Proclaims the Gospel

A new year has dawned. I pray that God's grace will be abundant in your homes, your work, and in every step of your journey in the year ahead.

As one year comes to a close, I often find myself reflecting on the direction of our ministry and asking what theme God is inviting us to embrace. We have heard the news for some time now, but the reality is stark: churches today are struggling. Membership and giving are declining, and the younger generation is drifting away from the faith. Many of us sense a growing uncertainty—as though we are walking through uncharted territory, a landscape we have never known before. In a season when the old methods no longer work, it is not easy to find clear answers on how to move forward.

Explorers tell us that when traveling a marked path, a map is essential. But when entering territory no one has charted before, a map can quickly become useless. What we need then is not a map, but a compass—something that points us true North. If the direction is clear, the path can be made as we walk.

Especially when the way forward feels unfamiliar, we must return to the basics—to check our spiritual compass. That is why, for 2026, we have discerned our direction as “A Church That Prays and Proclaims the Gospel” (Matthew 28:19–20).

Consider the early church. They had no detailed roadmaps, no polished growth strategies, and no grand plans to build a global institution. They simply held fast to the Lord's promise and gathered together in prayer. In that prayer, they were filled with the Holy Spirit. And that Spirit moved them outward—into the world—to proclaim that Jesus is the Christ. That was the beginning of the Christian movement and remains the starting point of every true renewal.

If you ask, “So what exactly are we going to do?” I must answer honestly: I do not yet know. I do not have a completed map to lay out before you. But what we do have is a sure and trustworthy compass—one that points us toward the Lord. As long as we hold fast to the compass of prayer and do not lose our direction, God will open new paths for our church to walk.

In 2026, I look forward to walking this new path together with you.

Peace,

Yohan Go
