You have gathered us together to worship you together as one body. May we love one another, welcome one another, lift up one another.

God, for some of us this has been a long week. Some perhaps have faced overwhelming trials or heard devastating news and are burdened by worry and concern. We may be questioning the news of the world that surrounds us, causing us to be confused, frightened and angry. We don't understand why there are such hardships and struggle. Perhaps we have even doubted your love and power. Help us to turn to you, trusting that you are always in control. You are with us. You are closer to us than our very breath, and we trust your presence. Give hope to those who feel hopeless. Seek and save the lost. Bring healing to those who are suffering physically, mentally and spiritually. Surround those who are grieving with your loving arms, consoling them with your comfort and peace.

You are a God of joy and with that, we have hope. We pray that you, our God of hope will fill us with your unending joy and peace as we learn to trust in you, so that we may overflow with hope by the power of the Holy spirit. Allow us to become instruments of your joy and hope in a world so desperately seeking the

God, for some of us this has been a long week. Some perhaps have faced overwhelming trials or heard devastating news and are burdened by worry and concern. We may be questioning the news of the world that surrounds us, causing us to be confused, frightened and angry. We don't understand why there are such hardships and struggle. Perhaps we have even doubted your love and power. Help us to turn to you, trusting that you are always in control. You are with us. You are closer to us than our very breath, and we trust your presence. Give hope to those who feel hopeless. Seek and save the lost. Bring healing to those who are suffering physically, mentally and spiritually. Surround those who are grieving with your loving arms, consoling them with your comfort and peace.

You are a God of joy and with that, we have hope. We pray that you, our God of hope will fill us with your unending joy and peace as we learn to trust in you, so that we may overflow with hope by the power of the Holy spirit. How beautiful on the
mountains are the feet of those who bring good news,
who proclaim peace, who
bring good tidings, who
proclaim salvation, who say
to Zion, "Your God reigns!"

Six days before the Passover, Jesus arrived at
Bethany where Lazarus
lived, whom Jesus had raised from the dead. Here
a dinner was given in Jesus'
honor. Martha served,
while Lazarus was among those reclining at the table

with him.

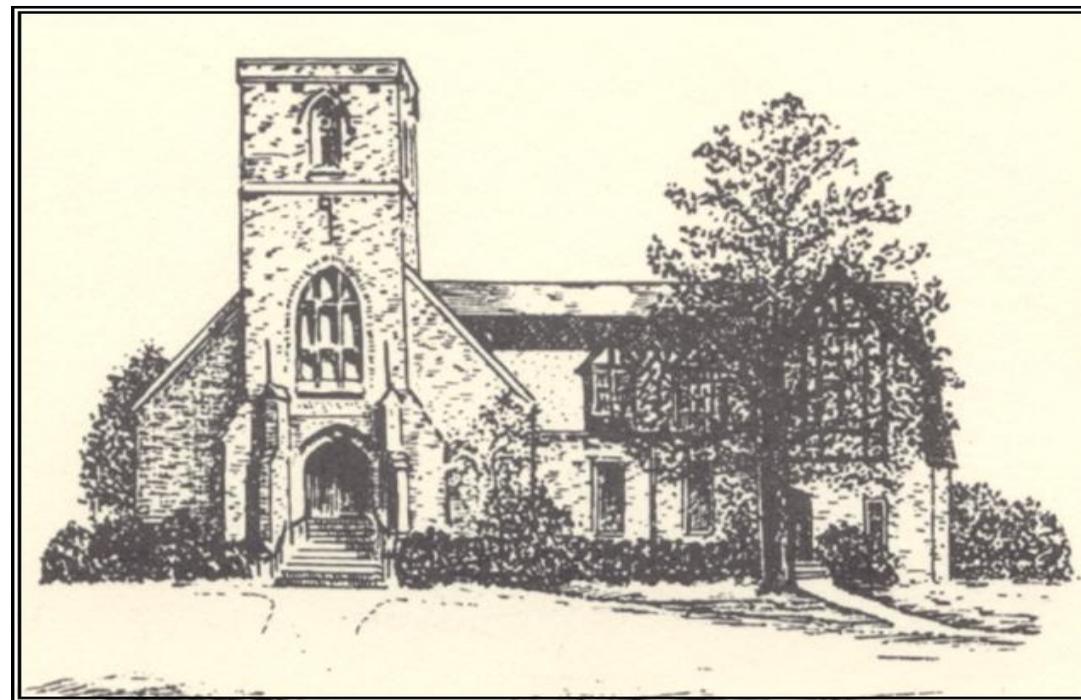

Then Mary took about a
pint of pure nard, an
expensive perfume; she
poured it on Jesus' feet and
wiped his feet with her hair.
And the house was filled with the fragrance of the
perfume.

But one of his disciples, Judas, Iscariot, who was
later to betray him,
objected, "Why wasn't this
perfume sold and the money given to the poor? It
was worth a year's wages."
He did not say this because
he cared about the poor but
because he was a thief; as
keeper of the money bag,
he used to help himself to
what was put into it.

Good News you alone can offer.

We pray for all those whose names and circumstances were lifted by your people this morning.

Help us to be free and to find rest in you. Help us to be people of praise and gratitude. It is with this gratitude that we pray in the name of our Lord, the prayer he taught His disciples...Our Father

You have gathered us together to worship you together as one body. May we love one another, welcome one another, lift up one another.

God, for some of us this has been a long week. Some perhaps have faced overwhelming trials or heard devastating news and are burdened by worry and concern. We may be questioning the news of the world that surrounds us, causing us to be confused, frightened and angry. We don't understand why there are such hardships and struggle. Perhaps we have even doubted your love and power. Help us to turn to you, trusting that you are always in control. You are with us. You are closer to us than our very breath, and we trust your presence. Give hope to those who feel hopeless. Seek and save the lost. Bring healing to those who are suffering physically, mentally and spiritually. Surround those who are grieving with your loving arms, consoling them with your comfort and peace.

You are a God of joy and with that, we have hope. We pray that you, our God of hope will fill us with your unending joy and peace as we learn to trust in you, so that we may overflow with hope by the power of the Holy spirit. Our loving God did not think the life of His son was too high a price to pay for our

How beautiful on the
mountains are the feet of
those who bring good news,
who proclaim peace, who
bring good tidings, who
proclaim salvation, who say
to Zion, "Your God reigns!"

Six days before the
Passover, Jesus arrived at
Bethany where Lazarus
lived, whom Jesus had
raised from the dead. Here
a dinner was given in Jesus'
honor. Martha served,
while Lazarus was among

those reclining at the table
with him.

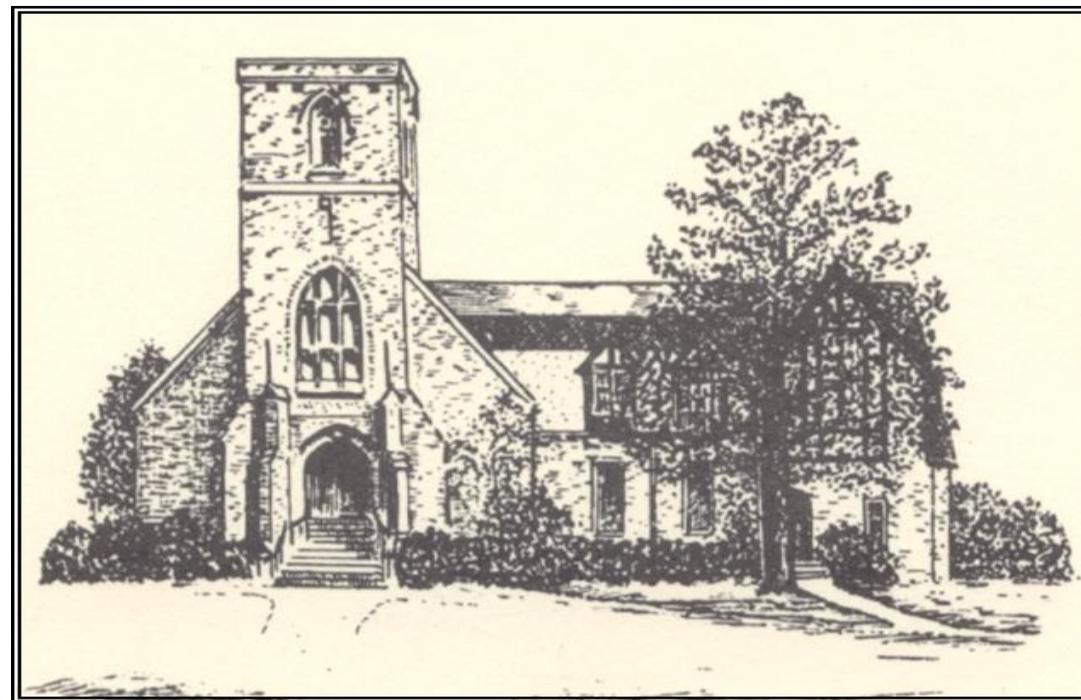

Then Mary took about a
pint of pure nard, an
expensive perfume; she
poured it on Jesus' feet and
wiped his feet with her hair.
And the house was filled
with the fragrance of the
perfume.

But one of his disciples,
Judas, Iscariot, who was
later to betray him,
objected, "Why wasn't this
perfume sold and the
money given to the poor? It
was worth a year's wages."
He did not say this because
he cared about the poor but
because he was a thief; as
keeper of the money bag,
he used to help himself to
what was put into it.

Good News you alone can offer.

We pray for all those whose names and circumstances were lifted by your people this morning.

Help us to be free and to find rest in you. Help us to be people of praise and gratitude. It is with this gratitude that we pray in the name of our Lord, the prayer he taught His disciples...Our Father

You have gathered us together to worship you together as one body. May we love one another, welcome one another, lift up one another.

God, for some of us this has been a long week. Some perhaps have faced overwhelming trials or heard devastating news and are burdened by worry and concern. We may be questioning the news of the world that surrounds us, causing us to be confused, frightened and angry. We don't understand why there are such hardships and struggle. Perhaps we have even doubted your love and power. Help us to turn to you, trusting that you are always in control. You are with us. You are closer to us than our very breath, and we trust your presence. Give hope to those who feel hopeless. Seek and save the lost. Bring healing to those who are suffering physically, mentally and spiritually. Surround those who are grieving with your loving arms, consoling them with your comfort and peace.

You are a God of joy and with that, we have hope. We pray that you, our God of hope will fill us with your unending joy and peace as we learn to trust in you, so that we may overflow with hope by the power of the Holy spirit. How beautiful on the
those who bring good news,
who proclaim peace, who
bring good tidings, who
proclaim salvation, who say
to Zion, "Your God reigns!"

Six days before the
Passover, Jesus arrived at
Bethany where Lazarus
lived, whom Jesus had
raised from the dead. Here
a dinner was given in Jesus'
honor. Martha served,
while Lazarus was among

those reclining at the table
with him.

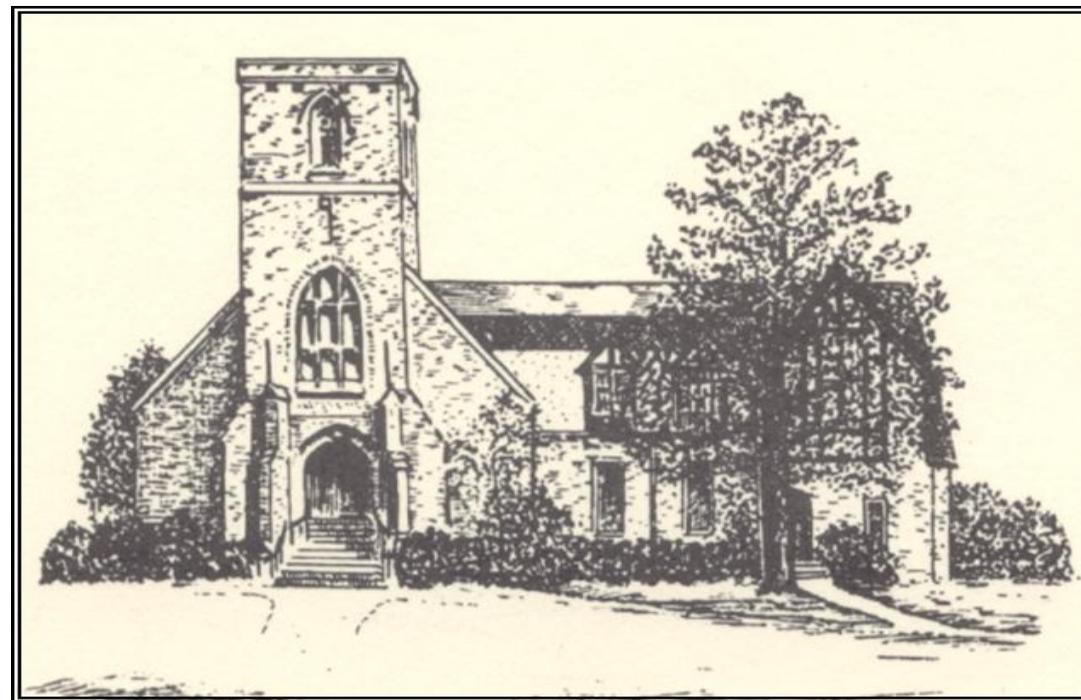

Then Mary took about a
pint of pure nard, an
expensive perfume; she
poured it on Jesus' feet and
wiped his feet with her hair.
And the house was filled
with the fragrance of the
perfume.

But one of his disciples,
Judas, Iscariot, who was
later to betray him,
objected, "Why wasn't this
perfume sold and the
money given to the poor? It
was worth a year's wages."
He did not say this because
because he was a thief; as
keeper of the money bag,
he used to help himself to
what was put into it.

Good News you alone can offer.

We pray for all those whose names and circumstances were lifted by your people this morning.

Help us to be free and to find rest in you. Help us to be people of praise and gratitude. It is with this gratitude that we pray in the name of our Lord, the prayer he taught His disciples...Our Father

God, for some of us this has been a long week. Some perhaps have faced overwhelming trials or heard devastating news and are burdened by worry and concern. We may be questioning the news of the world that surrounds us, causing us to be confused, frightened and angry. We don't understand why there are such hardships and struggle. Perhaps we have even doubted your love and power. Help us to turn to you, trusting that you are always in control. You are with us. You are closer to us than our very breath, and we trust your presence. Give hope to those who feel hopeless. Seek and save the lost. Bring healing to those who are suffering physically, mentally and spiritually. Surround those who are grieving with your loving arms, consoling them with your comfort and peace.

You are a God of joy and with that, we have hope. Call to Worship (Kwasi Keni, The Africana Worship Book for Year C)

Leader: Six days before the Passover, Martha served Jesus dinner at Lazarus’ house. There, Mary took a pound of costly perfume and anointed Jesus’ feet.

All: What’s that in the air?

Leader: Mary poured perfume on Jesus’ feet and then wiped his feet with her hair.

All: She filled the air with the fragrance of her worship!

Leader: The prayers of the saints are like rising incense before God.

All: The fragrance of their worship fills the air.

Leader: Today, let us raise a praise that touches the heart of God.

All: Let the fragrance of our worship fill the air!

Leader: Let the fragrance of our worship fill the air!

All: God, we offer our praise as a sweet fragrance that aspires to heaven. May the fragrance of our worship fill the air!

Lord's Prayer:

Our Father,

Who art in Heaven,
hallowed be Thy Name. Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we

How beautiful on the
mountains are the feet of
those who bring good news,
who proclaim peace, who
bring good tidings, who
proclaim salvation, who say
to Zion, "Your God reigns!"

Six days before the
Passover, Jesus arrived at
Bethany where Lazarus
lived, whom Jesus had
raised from the dead. Here
a dinner was given in Jesus'
honor. Martha served,
while Lazarus was among

those reclining at the table
with him.

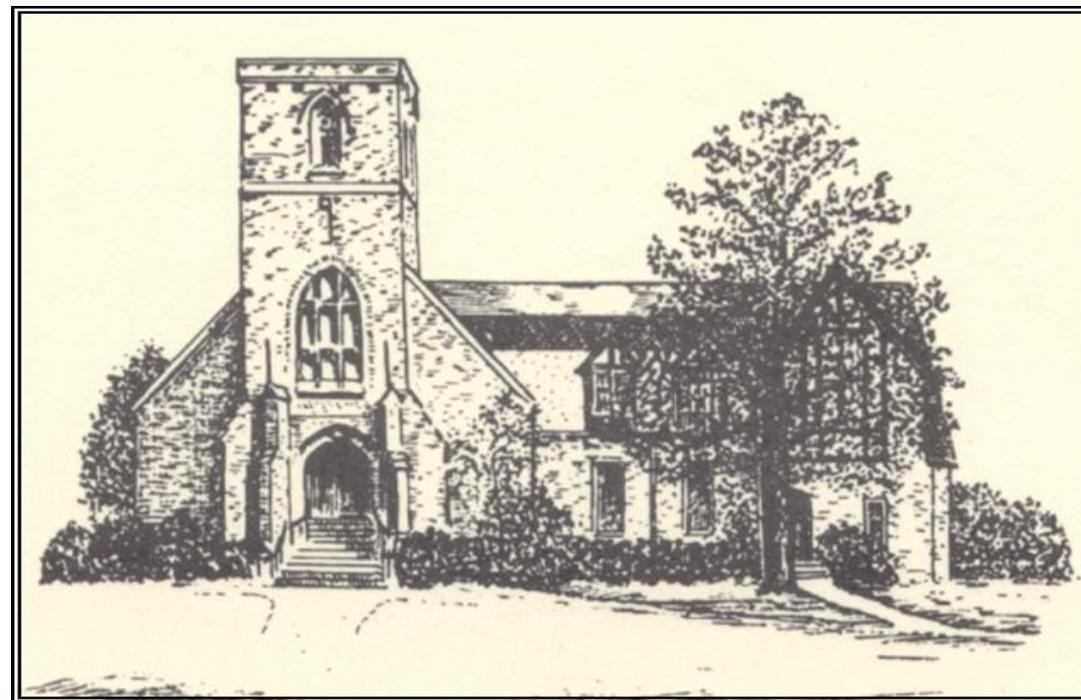

Then Mary took about a
pint of pure nard, an
expensive perfume; she
poured it on Jesus' feet and
wiped his feet with her hair.
And the house was filled
with the fragrance of the
perfume.

But one of his disciples,
Judas, Iscariot, who was
later to betray him,
objected, "Why wasn't this
perfume sold and the
money given to the poor? It
was worth a year's wages."
He did not say this because
because he was a thief; as
keeper of the money bag,
he used to help himself to
what was put into it.

Good News you alone can offer.

We pray for all those whose names and circumstances were lifted by your people this morning.

Help us to be free and to find rest in you. Help us to be people of praise and gratitude. It is with this gratitude that we pray in the name of our Lord, the prayer he taught His disciples...Our Father

God, for some of us this has been a long week. Some perhaps have faced overwhelming trials or heard devastating news and are burdened by worry and concern. We may be questioning the news of the world that surrounds us, causing us to be confused, frightened and angry. We don't understand why there are such hardships and struggle. Perhaps we have even doubted your love and power. Help us to turn to you, trusting that you are always in control. You are with us. You are closer to us than our very breath, and we trust your presence. Give hope to those who feel hopeless. Seek and save the lost. Bring healing to those who are suffering physically, mentally and spiritually. Surround those who are grieving with your loving arms, consoling them with your comfort and peace.

You are a God of joy and with that, we have hope. Call to Worship (Kwasi Keni, The Africana Worship Book for Year C)

Leader: Six days before the Passover, Martha served Jesus dinner at Lazarus' house. There, Mary took a pound of costly perfume and anointed Jesus' feet.

All: What's that in the air?

Leader: Mary poured perfume on Jesus' feet and then wiped his feet with her hair.

All: She filled the air with the fragrance of her worship!

Leader: The prayers of the saints are like rising incense before God.

All: The fragrance of their worship fills the air.

Leader: Today, let us raise a praise that touches the heart of God.

All: Let the fragrance of our worship fill the air!

Leader: Let the fragrance of our worship fill the air!

How beautiful on the

those who bring good news,

proclaim salvation, who say
to Zion, "Your God reigns!"

Six days before the
Passover, Jesus arrived at
Bethany where Lazarus
lived, whom Jesus had
raised from the dead. Here
a dinner was given in Jesus'
honor. Martha served,
while Lazarus was among

those reclining at the table
with him.

Then Mary took about a
pint of pure nard, an
expensive perfume; she
poured it on Jesus' feet and
wiped his feet with her hair.
And the house was filled
with the fragrance of the
perfume.

But one of his disciples,
Judas, Iscariot, who was
later to betray him,
objected, "Why wasn't this
perfume sold and the
money given to the poor? It
was worth a year's wages."
He did not say this because
because he was a thief; as
keeper of the money bag,
he used to help himself to
what was put into it.

You have gathered us together to worship you together as one body. May we love one another, welcome one another, lift up one another.

God, for some of us this has been a long week. Some perhaps have faced overwhelming trials or heard devastating news and are burdened by worry and concern. We may be questioning the news of the world that surrounds us, causing us to be confused, frightened and angry. We don't understand why there are such hardships and struggle. Perhaps we have even doubted your love and power. Help us to turn to you, trusting that you are always in control. You are with us. You are closer to

God, for some of us this has been a long week. Some perhaps have faced overwhelming trials or heard devastating news and are burdened by worry and concern. We may be questioning the news of the world that surrounds us, causing us to be confused, frightened and angry. We don't understand why there are such hardships and struggle. Perhaps we have even doubted your love and power. Help us to turn to you, trusting that you are always in control. You are with us. You are closer to us than our very breath, and we trust your presence. Give hope to those who feel hopeless. Seek and save the lost. Bring healing to those who are suffering physically, mentally and spiritually. Surround those who are grieving with your loving arms, consoling them with your comfort and peace.

You are a God of joy and with that, we have hope. We pray that you, our God of hope will fill us with your unending joy and peace as we learn to trust in you, so that we may overflow with hope by the power of the Holy spirit. Allow us to become instruments of your joy and hope in a world so desperately seeking the

Call to Worship (Kwasi Keni, The Africana Worship Book for Year C)

Leader: Six days before the Passover, Martha served Jesus dinner at Lazarus' house. There, Mary took a pound of costly perfume and anointed Jesus' feet.

All: What's that in the air?

Leader: Mary poured perfume on Jesus' feet and then wiped his feet with her hair.

All: She filled the air with the fragrance of her worship!

Leader: The prayers of the saints are like rising incense before God.

All: The fragrance of their worship fills the air.

Leader: Today, let us raise a praise that touches the heart of God.

All: Let the fragrance of our worship fill the air!

Leader: Let the fragrance of our worship fill the air!

proclaim salvation, who say
to Zion, "Your God reigns!"

Six days before the
Passover, Jesus arrived at
Bethany where Lazarus
lived, whom Jesus had
raised from the dead. Here
a dinner was given in Jesus'
honor. Martha served,
while Lazarus was among

those reclining at the table
with him.

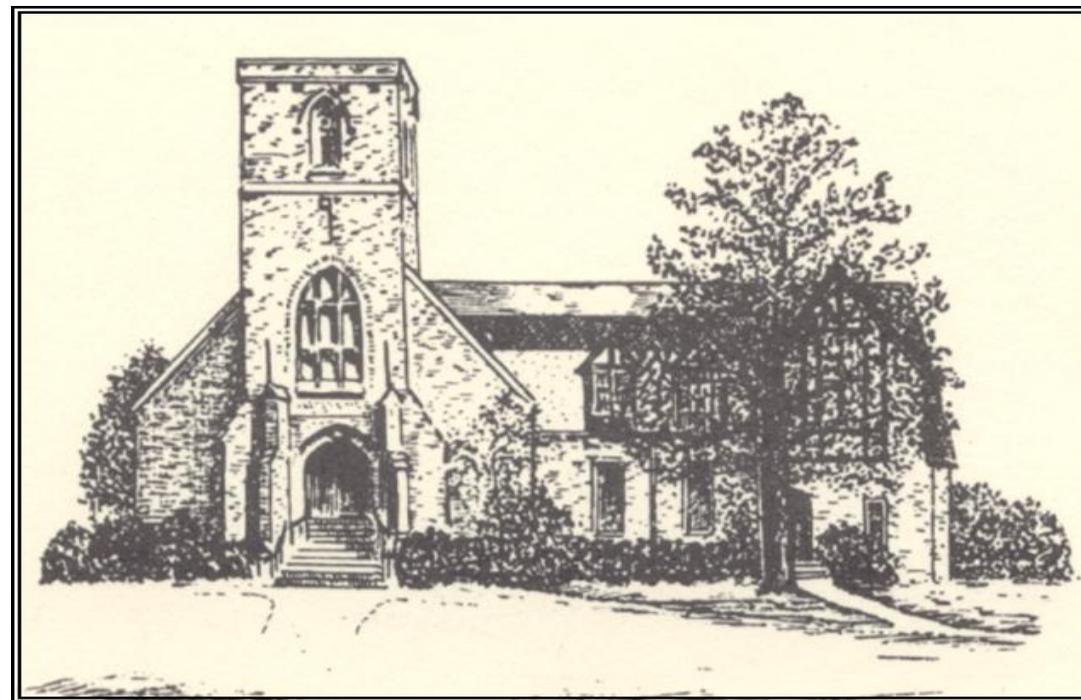

Then Mary took about a
pint of pure nard, an
expensive perfume; she
poured it on Jesus' feet and
wiped his feet with her hair.
And the house was filled
with the fragrance of the
perfume.

But one of his disciples,
Judas, Iscariot, who was
later to betray him,
objected, "Why wasn't this
perfume sold and the
money given to the poor? It
was worth a year's wages."
He did not say this because
he cared about the poor but
because he was a thief; as

he used to help himself to
what was put into it.

You have gathered us together to worship you together as one body. May we love one another, welcome one another, lift up one another.

God, for some of us this has been a long week. Some perhaps have faced overwhelming trials or heard devastating news and are burdened by worry and concern. We may be questioning the news of the world that surrounds us, causing us to be confused, frightened and angry. We don't understand why there are such hardships and struggle. Perhaps we have even doubted your love and power. Help us to turn to you, trusting that you are always in control. You are with us. You are closer to us than our very breath, and we trust your presence. Give hope to those who feel hopeless. Seek and save the lost. Bring healing to those who are suffering physically, mentally and spiritually. Surround those who are grieving with your loving arms, consoling them with your comfort and peace.

You are a God of joy and with that, we have hope. We pray that you, our God of hope will fill us with your unending joy and peace as we learn to trust in you, so that we may overflow with hope by the power of the Holy spirit. Allow us to become instruments of your joy and hope in a world so desperately seeking the “Leave her alone,” Jesus replied. “It was intended that she should save this perfume for the day of my burial. You will always have the poor among you, but you will not always have me. “

Closing Hymn: # 174 His Name Is Wonderful (Sing twice)

Benediction:

May the beauty of God be reflected in your eyes, the love of God be reflected in your hands, the wisdom of God be reflected in your words, and the knowledge of God flow from your heart, that all might see, and seeing, believe.

Blessing of the Balm: (Jan L. Richardson: The Painted Prayerbook)

When we see the body of Christ still broken in this world,

May we meet it with lavish grace,

And pour ourselves out with extravagant love. Amen.

Pastoral Prayer:

Dear Gracious and Heavenly Father,

Centering Hymn: TFWS # 2128 Come and Find the Quiet Center (vs. 1-3)

John 12:1-8

Call to Worship (Kwasi Keni, The Africana Worship Book for Year C)

Leader: Six days before the Passover, Martha served Jesus dinner at Lazarus' house. There, Mary took a pound of costly perfume and anointed Jesus' feet.

All: What's that in the air?

Leader: Mary poured perfume on Jesus' feet and then wiped his feet with her hair.

All: She filled the air with the fragrance of her worship!

Leader: The prayers of the saints are like rising incense before God.

All: The fragrance of their worship fills the air.

Leader: Today, let us raise a praise that touches the heart of God.

All: Let the fragrance of our worship fill the air!

Leader: Let the fragrance of our worship fill the air!

All: God, we offer our praise as a sweet fragrance that aspires to heaven. May the fragrance of our worship fill the air!

Opening Hymn: Hymnal # 171 There's Something about that Name

Pastoral Prayer

Lord's Prayer:

Our Father,

Who art in Heaven,
hallowed be Thy Name. Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day
our daily bread. And forgive
us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory, forever.

AMEN

Offering Invitation

Our loving God did not think the life of His son was too high a price to pay for our salvation. As we give this day, not only do we want our gifts to impact the world, but to bring glory to Christ, who lived and died for us.

Interlude

Offertory Prayer: Bruce Prewer

Leader: Giver of the most expensive gift of all, help us to learn from you.

All: May we who are so adept at catering for our own wants,

Make ourselves more vulnerable to the needs of others.

Let us live unselfishly and more sensitively, that we may spread love's fragrance

Wherever the odor of cynicism and despair hang in the air.

Through Jesus Christ, Our Savior. AMEN

Scripture Reading: Isaiah 52:7 and John 12: 1-8

How beautiful on the
mountains are the feet of
those who bring good news,
who proclaim peace, who
bring good tidings, who
proclaim salvation, who say
to Zion, "Your God reigns!"

Six days before the
Passover, Jesus arrived at
Bethany where Lazarus
lived, whom Jesus had
raised from the dead. Here
a dinner was given in Jesus'
honor. Martha served,
while Lazarus was among

those reclining at the table
with him.

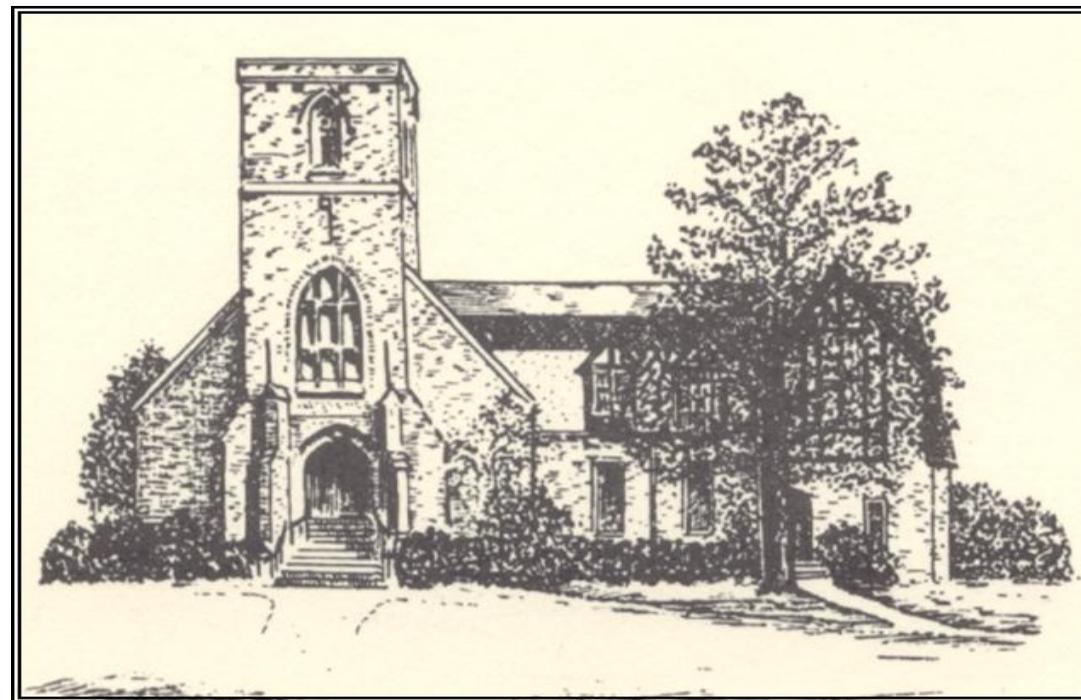

Then Mary took about a
pint of pure nard, an
expensive perfume; she
poured it on Jesus' feet and
wiped his feet with her hair.
And the house was filled
with the fragrance of the
perfume.

But one of his disciples,
Judas, Iscariot, who was
later to betray him,
objected, "Why wasn't this
perfume sold and the
money given to the poor? It
was worth a year's wages."
He did not say this because
because he was a thief; as
keeper of the money bag,
he used to help himself to
what was put into it.
