PRELUDE

GREETINGS

PRAYER

Our gracious and loving Heavenly Father,

We come to You this morning, not as strangers but as Your children who have been made part of Your family. What a bright future we have.

We thank You today for Your Faithfulness and Your mercy and grace. You are always there when we need You. We give you thanks and praise today. We know that your grace is always sufficient and we rejoice in that. By your grace we can do things we never thought possible and we can reach heights we never thought we could reach. So today we give you thanks and we glorify your matchless name.

You know us, Lord, individually and you look right down into our hearts and minds and you understand where we stand before you right now. Please help each of us as we lift up our hearts and needs. As we reach out to you, you are already reaching out to us.

We pray for the needs of our people today. Maybe nobody on earth knows about the struggles and burdens they are facing, but you know. We ask you to meet our needs this morning and give us the assurance that you are answering our prayers. We pray for those with physical needs...those who are facing surgery, procedures and treatment. They need your healing touch. We pray for those with financial needs...those who have lost jobs, who are homeless and hungry. They need your direction and guidance right now. Answer them in a very special and definite way. We pray for those with emotional needs... those who struggle with addiction, mental health issues, anxiety. We pray for those who have lost loved ones and who are mourning those losses, either recently or from time past. Whatever they are, Lord, we bring them to you.

We pray for our community, locally and nationally and globally. We pray for our government officials especially the newly elected president and other leaders. We pray for a revival of godliness and righteousness and holiness in our country.

We pray for Your word as it is preached around the world and for those in countries that don't enjoy the freedom that we have.

We pray for Yohan as he is leading us and for him as he directs his efforts in his educational endeavors. Thank you for your presence with us right now in this service. Be with us as we continue to pray in your name, the words that Jesus taught his disciples:

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father,

Who art in heaven. Hallowed be thy name; Thy kingdom come; thy will be done; on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass in unaccountable faith,

in stubborn hope,
in love that illumines
every broken thing it finds.

BENEDICTION

Send us forth, O, God,
With every breath a thanksgiving
Every thought wrapped in compassion,
Every word filled with kindness,
And every deed a channel of Love.
Through your grace may our lives become a prayer. Amen
