

Prelude

Greeting

- The CDC has revised a mask guideline and the church council has discussed about it on last Tuesday. From the first week of June, we will get a step closer to a full-capacity worship service. Wearing a mask is recommended but not required, if you are fully vaccinated. You are allowed to singing out loud or even you can dance if you want!
Asbury UMC continues to offer live-streaming worship service so please join our worship service in a way that you feel most safe.
- Lakewood Baptist church will hold a drive-through food collection on June 26th from 10am to 1pm

Asbury Mission Statement

"We are Asbury; Abundantly thankful to God;
Saved by Christ's resurrection; Blessed by God; United by Christ's love for each of us;
Reaching out to our church family and our community;
Yearning to tell the Good News to all by being Christ's voice, hands, and feet in the world."

Announcements

Call to Worship

One Voice: In a day when so many men are absent, we cherish the love of our fathers.

Many Voices: Thank God for fathers who comfort and encourage.

One Voice: Thank God for fathers who build character and inspire us to greatness.

Many Voices: Thank God for fathers who teach morality and model decency.

One Voice: Thank God for fathers who lovingly convince boys to become men.

Many Voices: Thank God for brave fathers who have the courage to resist being absent.

All: Lord, on this Father's Day, may we encourage more men in our community to pick up the mantle of fatherhood!

Scripture Reading

Luke 15:11-24

¹¹ Then Jesus said, "There was a man who had two sons. ¹² The younger of them said to his father, 'Father, give me the share of the property that will belong to me.' So he divided his property between them. ¹³ A few days later the younger son gathered all he had and traveled to a distant country, and there he squandered his property in dissolute living. ¹⁴ When he had spent everything, a severe famine took place throughout that country, and he began to be in need. ¹⁵ So he went and hired himself out to one of the citizens of that country, who sent him to his fields to feed the pigs. ¹⁶ He would gladly have filled himself with the pods that the pigs were eating; and no one gave him anything. ¹⁷ But when he came to himself he said, 'How many of my father's hired hands have bread enough and to spare, but here I am dying of hunger! ¹⁸ I will get up and go to my father, and I will say to him, "Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you; ¹⁹ I am no longer worthy to be called your son; treat me like one of your hired hands.”²⁰ So he set off and went to his father. But while he was still far off, his father saw him and was filled with compassion; he ran and put his arms around him and kissed him.²¹ Then the son said to him, ‘Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you; I am no longer worthy to be called your son.’²² But the father said to his slaves, ‘Quickly, bring out a robe—the best one—and put it on him; put a ring on his finger and sandals on his feet.’²³ And get the fatted calf and kill it, and let us eat and celebrate;²⁴ for this son of mine was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found!’ And they began to celebrate.
