Centering hymn: TFWS 2108 Oh How He Loves You and Me vs 1,2

Call to Worship

L: Come, all who labor and are weighed down with responsibility, uncertainty, and worry.

P: We come, because the load we carry is heavier than we can bear alone.

L: Come, all you who seek to relate work and worship, leisure and service, into a meaningful whole.

P: We gather for spiritual renewal and practical challenge, for help in making choices and carrying out our commitments.

L: Come, sinner and saint, with your hatreds and loves, your failures and successes, your sorrows and joys.

P: We respond to the Spirit's leading and open ourselves to receive God's gracious gifts.

By Lavon Baylor, Flames of the Spirit, Ruth C. Duck, ed., Pilgrim Press, 1985, 52.

Scripture reading: Luke 14:25-33

14:25 Now large crowds were traveling with him; and he turned and said to them, 14:26 "Whoever comes to me and does not hate father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters, yes, and even life itself, cannot be my disciple. 14:27 Whoever does not carry the cross and follow me cannot be my disciple. 14:28 For which of you, intending to build a tower, does not first sit down and estimate the cost, to see whether he has enough to complete it? 14:29 Otherwise, when he has laid a foundation and is not able to finish, all who see it will begin to ridicule him, 14:30 saying, 'This fellow began to build and was not able to finish.' 14:31 Or what king, going out to wage war against another king, will not sit down first and consider whether he is able with ten thousand to oppose the one who comes against him with twenty thousand? 14:32 If he cannot, then, while the other is still far away, he sends a delegation and asks for the terms of peace. 14:33 So therefore, none of you can become my disciple if you do not give up all your possessions.

Centering hymn: TFWS 2108 Oh How He Loves You and Me vs 1,2

Call to Worship

L: Come, all who labor and are weighed down with responsibility, uncertainty, and worry.

P: We come, because the load we carry is heavier than we can bear alone.

L: Come, all you who seek to relate work and worship, leisure and service, into a meaningful whole.

P: We gather for spiritual renewal and practical challenge, for help in making choices and carrying out our commitments.

L: Come, sinner and saint, with your hatreds and loves, your failures and successes, your sorrows and joys.

P: We respond to the Spirit's leading and open ourselves to receive God's gracious gifts.

14:25 Now large crowds were traveling with him; and he turned and said to them, 14:26 "Whoever comes to me and does not hate father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters, yes, and even life itself, cannot be my disciple. 14:27 Whoever does not carry the cross and follow me cannot be my disciple. 14:28 For which of you, intending to build a tower, does not first sit down and estimate the cost, to see whether he has enough to complete it? 14:29 Otherwise, when he has laid a foundation and is not able to finish, all who see it will begin to ridicule him, 14:30 saying, 'This fellow began to build and was not able to finish.' 14:31 Or what king, going out to wage war against another king, will not sit down first and consider whether he is able with ten thousand to oppose the one who comes against him with twenty thousand? 14:32 If he cannot, then, while the other is still far away, he sends a delegation and asks for the terms of peace. 14:33 So therefore, none of you can become my disciple if you do not give up all your possessions.

14:25 Now large crowds were traveling with him; and he turned and said to them, 14:26 "Whoever comes to me and does not hate father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters, yes, and even life itself, cannot be my disciple. 14:27 Whoever does not carry the cross and follow me cannot be my disciple. 14:28 For which of you, intending to build a tower, does not first sit down and estimate the cost, to see whether he has enough to complete it? 14:29 Otherwise, when he has laid a foundation and is not able to finish, all who see it will begin to ridicule him, 14:30 saying, 'This fellow began to build and was not able to finish.' 14:31 Or what king, going out to wage war against another king, will not sit down first and consider whether he is able with ten thousand to oppose the one who comes against him with twenty thousand? 14:32 If he cannot, then, while the other is still far away, he sends a delegation and asks for the terms of peace. 14:33 So therefore, none of you can become my disciple if you do not give up all your possessions.

Centering hymn: TFWS 2108 Oh How He Loves You and Me vs 1,2

Call to Worship

L: Come, all who labor and are weighed down with responsibility, uncertainty, and worry.

P: We come, because the load we carry is heavier than we can bear alone.

L: Come, all you who seek to relate work and worship, leisure and service, into a meaningful whole.

P: We gather for spiritual renewal and practical challenge, for help in making choices and carrying out our commitments.

L: Come, sinner and saint, with your hatreds and loves, your failures and successes, your sorrows and joys.

P: We respond to the Spirit's leading and open ourselves to receive God's gracious gifts.

Scripture reading: Luke 14:25-33

14:25 Now large crowds were traveling with him; and he turned and said to them, 14:26 "Whoever comes to me and does not hate father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters, yes, and even life itself, cannot be my disciple. 14:27 Whoever does not carry the cross and follow me cannot be my disciple. 14:28 For which of you, intending to build a tower, does not first sit down and estimate the cost, to see whether he has enough to complete it? 14:29 Otherwise, when he has laid a foundation and is not able to finish, all who see it will begin to ridicule him, 14:30 saying, 'This fellow began to build and was not able to finish.' 14:31 Or what king, going out to wage war against another king, will not sit down first and consider whether he is able with ten thousand to oppose the one who comes against him with twenty thousand? 14:32 If he cannot, then, while the other is still far away, he sends a delegation and asks for the terms of peace. 14:33 So therefore, none of you can become my disciple if you do not give up all your possessions.

Centering hymn: TFWS 2108 Oh How He Loves You and Me vs 1,2

Call to Worship

L: Come, all who labor and are weighed down with responsibility, uncertainty, and worry.

P: We come, because the load we carry is heavier than we can bear alone.

L: Come, all you who seek to relate work and worship, leisure and service, into a meaningful whole.

P: We gather for spiritual renewal and practical challenge, for help in making choices and carrying out our commitments.

L: Come, sinner and saint, with your hatreds and loves, your failures and successes, your sorrows and joys.

P: We respond to the Spirit's leading and open ourselves to receive God's gracious gifts.
